G. JAGANNATHAN, Under Secy.

New Delhi, the 1st August 1963

G.S.R. 1321.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3, read with section 7 of the Coal Mines Provident Fund and Bonus Schemes Act, 1948 (46 of 1948), the Central Government hereby makes the following Scheme further to amend the Coal Mines Provident Fund Scheme, published with the notification of the Government of India in the late Ministry of Labour No. PF. 15(5)/48, dated the 11th December, 1948, namely:—

1. This Scheme may be called the Coal Mines Provident Fund (Seventh Amendment) Scheme, 1963.

2. In the Coal Mines Provident Fund Scheme, hereinafter referred to as the said Scheme, after paragraph 65A, the following new paragraph shall be inserted, namely:—

“65B—Advance from the Fund for the purchase of a dwelling house or a dwelling site or for construction of a dwelling house.—(1) The Commissioner or where so authorised by the Commissioner, any officer subordinate to him may, on a application from a member in such form and supported by such plans, estimates and other documents as the Commissioner may prescribe, sanction from the amount standing to the credit of the member in the Fund, a non-recoverable advance of an amount not exceeding his own contribution with interest thereon standing to his credit at the end of the last completed currency period for which contributions have been posted in the individual ledger account of the member. The advance may be allowed for any one or more of the following purposes:—

- (a) Purchase of a site for construction of a dwelling house;
- (b) Purchase of a dwelling house;
- (c) Construction of a dwelling house on the site purchased out of an advance from the Fund;
- (d) Construction of a dwelling house on the site acquired near his previous building or elsewhere;
- (e) For converting a temporary or Kutcha house into a pucca house.

(2) Not more than one advance shall be allowed for any one of the purposes mentioned in clauses (a) to (e) of sub-paragraph (1) and no advance for the purpose mentioned at clause (d) shall be allowed to a member who has been granted an advance for any purpose mentioned in clauses (b) and (c). A member who has been granted an advance under clauses (b), (c) and (d) of sub-paragraph (1) shall not be entitled to any advance for the purpose mentioned in clause (e).

(3) A further non-recoverable advance, not exceeding the member's own contribution and interest thereon standing to his credit in the Fund at the end of the last completed currency period for which contributions have been posted in his individual ledger account, may be allowed by the Commissioner or an officer subordinate to him, as the case may be, for the following purposes where he is satisfied that the member generally requires the further advance for the said purposes:—

- (i) For making additions to an existing house purchased or constructed out of an advance from the Fund.
- (ii) For completing the construction of a dwelling house already commenced out of an advance from the Fund.

(4) No advance under sub-paragraph (1) shall be sanctioned unless a member has completed seven years' membership of the Fund and has a minimum accumulation of rupees five hundred as his own contribution with interest thereon standing to his credit in the Fund at the end of the last completed currency period for which contributions have been posted in his individual ledger account.

(5) Where the advance is sanctioned for the purchase of a dwelling site, the amount of advance shall not exceed half of the member's own contribution with interest thereon standing to his credit at the end of the last completed currency period for which contributions have been posted in his individual ledger account. The remaining half may be paid to the member at his request at the time of construction of a dwelling house on such dwelling site.

Provided that the advance intended for construction of a dwelling house, whether it be half the total advance or the whole amount of the advance, shall be paid to the member in such number of instalments as the Commissioner or an officer subordinate to him, as the case may be, thinks fit.

Provided further that before paying each such instalment the Commissioner or the officer subordinate to him, as the case may be, may demand from the member such evidence regarding progress of construction and such account of the amounts spent on construction as he may consider proper for his satisfaction and no such instalment shall be paid to the member unless the said officer is satisfied with the evidence and account produced by the member or otherwise obtained by him.

(6) Where an advance is sanctioned for construction of a dwelling house, the construction shall commence within six months of the withdrawal of the first instalment and shall be completed within six months of the withdrawal of the final instalment. In the case of purchase of a dwelling house or a dwelling site, the purchase shall be completed within six months of the withdrawal of the amount.

(7) Provided that the time limits prescribed in this sub-paragraph may be extended by the Commissioner or the Officer subordinate to him as the case may be, to such extent as that officer may consider proper, in cases where that officer is satisfied about the genuineness of the difficulties in adhering to the said time limits.

(7-A) Where the advance applied for is for purchasing a dwelling site or a dwelling house the advance shall not be granted unless the dwelling site or as the case may be the dwelling house is free from encumbrances. No advance shall be granted for purchasing shares in a joint property or building a house on land owned jointly.

(8) If the advance granted under this paragraph exceeds the amount actually spent for the purpose for which it was sanctioned, the excess amount shall be refunded by the member to the Fund within thirty days of the finalisation of the purchase or as the case may be, within thirty days of the completion of the construction of, or necessary additions or alterations to, a dwelling house.

(9) If the Commissioner or any other officer subordinate to him authorised to sanction advance under this paragraph, is satisfied that the advance granted under this paragraph has been utilised for a purpose other than that for which it was granted or that the conditions of advance have not been fulfilled or that there is a reasonable apprehension that they will not be fulfilled wholly or partly or that the excess amount will not be refunded in terms of sub-paragraph (8) the Commissioner or the officer subordinate to him, as the case may be, shall forthwith take steps to recover the amount due with interest at a rate not exceeding 6½ per cent. per annum thereon from the wages of the member in such number of instalments as he may determine. For the purpose of such recovery the Commissioner or the officer subordinate to him, as the case may be, may direct the employer of the member concerned to deduct each such instalment from the wages of the member and on receipt of such direction the employer shall deduct accordingly. The amount so deducted shall be remitted by the employer to the Commissioner within such time and in such manner, as may be specified in this behalf by the Commissioner or the officer subordinate to him, as the case may be, for being credited to the member's account in the Fund. The employer making any deduction as aforesaid from the wages of a member, shall maintain and render such account thereof as the Commissioner may specify in this regard.

(10) Where any advance granted under this paragraph has been misused, no further advance shall be granted to the member under this paragraph.

(11) Any advance under this paragraph may at the discretion of the Commissioner or the officer subordinate to him sanctioning the payment be paid—

(i) by postal money-order, or

(ii) by crossed cheque sent through post, or

(iii) by crossed cheque or cash at any office of the Fund or the concerned colliery or at such other places as may be approved by the Chairman of the Board from time to time under clause (iii) of sub-paragraph (5) of paragraph 66 of the said Scheme, or

(iv) by deposit in the payee's postal savings bank account, if any.

Provided that where payment is made by any means other than postal money-order or deposit in payee's postal savings bank account, the Commissioner or the officer subordinate to him sanctioning the payment may obtain such evidence of the identity of the payee as he considers proper.

Provided further that the cost of remitting any amount under this paragraph to a member, shall be met from the Reserve Account Forfeiture of the Fund."
